

STEVE BROWNELL TO ENTERTAIN AT BOAT SHOW

Singer – songwriter Steve Brownell will take center stage daily when this year’s Progressive Catawba Island Boat Show drops anchor for 3 days, April 28-30, in the prestigious Catawba Island Club’s marina.

Arguably the most popular performer appearing annually in the Lake Erie Islands, Brownell has spent his last 25 summers bouncing between shows at Put-In-Bay and on Kelleys Island. Indeed, overall Brownell sings and entertains crowds over 230 times each year including his winter mainland appearances.

His shows have something for everyone. They combine cover tunes from the 60's thru the present day and always include his original music. His most recently released album, “No Matter What,” was recorded in Nashville where he records all his songs.

Aside from the latest album title song, other top numbers popular with Brownell audiences include: “Here I Go Again,” “Matter What” and “We Are Americans” among others. Toss in a little Brownell humor while he leads you in some good audience sing-alongs and every Brownell show is simply a great time.

Now in its 13th year, the boat show at CIC will feature more than 100 boats ranging from small inflatables to 60-foot-plus motor yachts. All the major dealers and yacht brokers from the northwest Ohio region participate in this show and bring many new models for their first public showing since the Cleveland show last January. Plus, virtually all the boats are displayed in-water with dozens of boating accessory and service displays ringing the beautiful CIC marina basin.

CIC is located on the northwest side of the Catawba peninsula, off Northwest Catawba Road.

Show hours will be: Friday, 12 Noon to 6 PM; Saturday, 10 AM to 6 PM; Sunday, 11AM to 5 PM. Admission and parking are always free. For more up-to-the-minutes information, visit: www.catawbaislandboatshow.com
